BOOKING POLICY

The Company has pitches for tents, trailer tents, motorhomes, campervans and touring caravans to be brought onto our parks, as well as standing glamping pods and bell tents, static caravans, lodges and cottages available for holiday let. Guests' enjoyment and safety on these parks is paramount, and therefore we request you read the following terms and policies before making any holiday booking, as any such booking made with the Company shall be subject to these terms and obligations set out herein this policy pack.

Importantly, before booking, we ask that all guests read, understand and acknowledge our current COVID-19 policy, available to review below.

Summary Terms of Agreement

1. A booking is a contract between yourself and the Company. All bookings are accepted on the proviso that you agree to these terms.
2. You, on behalf of yourself and your accompanying holiday party, acknowledge and accept the policies set out herein this policy pack, and agree to abide by any rules and/or obligations promulgated thereunder. It is your responsibility to ensure that all members of your holiday party accept these terms.
3. We reserve the right to: (i) refuse any booking, and (ii) subject to all applicable law, not accept all-male and/or all-female groups over a total of 3 persons, onto any of our parks.
4. The person who makes a booking (the "Booker") is responsible for it and warrants that: (i) the Booker is over 18 years of age, and (ii) the relevant holiday party will not exceed the person numbers and, where applicable, the pitch size requirements stated at the time of the booking by the Booker, and as shall be confirmed by the Company on the corresponding booking confirmation sent to the Booker.

5. Bookings can be made via our online booking system on our website or by contacting us using the contact details contained therein.
6. Bookings may be rejected by the Company if stated by the Booker to be expressly and wholly reliant on the uninterrupted provision of a wireless internet connection (Wi-Fi), as this is not something the Company can reasonably guarantee.
7. If staying in a park-hired accommodation unit (e.g., a standing glamping pod, bell tent, static caravan, lodge or cottage), a Dog Agreement must be completed and returned to park staff prior to or upon your Start Date.
8. The contract between you and the Company, incorporating these terms, becomes binding as soon as we receive your initial booking payment. This payment, which is treated as a part payment of your holiday, is neither transferable nor refundable.
9. Where contrary to these Summary Terms of Agreement (only), terms concerning any Holiday Protection Cover (see below) shall prevail. If you have purchased Holiday Protection Cover at the time of booking, you shall be covered depending on when you cancel or amend your booking, and, in respect of the former, the reason for such cancellation.
10. These terms do not impact in any way the terms of any third-party holiday cover or insurance you may have purchased.
11. The required deposit, payable at the time of booking, is 20% of the total price of your holiday with the Company (the "Deposit"). The balance payable in respect of your holiday (i.e., the total price less the Deposit) must be paid at least 28 days before your holiday start date (the "Start Date"). If this balance is not paid in compliance with the foregoing, we are entitled to cancel your holiday and retain the Deposit.
12. We reserve the right to ask our park guests who contravene these terms or, who in any other way are behaving in a manner reasonably likely to cause distress and/or nuisance to other park guests, to leave our parks immediately. In these circumstances, your holiday shall cease and we shall not be liable for any costs incurred by you.
13. Notwithstanding anything herein this policy pack or elsewhere, the Company, its employees, agents and/or sub-contractors (collectively, the "Representatives"), in whatever circumstances:
 - 13.1. shall not be liable for any loss or damage, or any theft from, any caravan or other accommodation located within our parks, unless the same be caused or contributed to by any gross negligence or material default on the part of the Representatives;
 - 13.2. do not accept any responsibility whatsoever for third parties' personal effects, whether brought onto such parks or otherwise; and

- 13.3. shall not incur any liability whatsoever in the event of any part of the parks or any facilities thereof being unavailable because of unforeseen circumstances beyond the Representatives' control.
14. On a reasonable endeavours basis and subject to availability, where multiple touring caravan, motorhome or camping pitches or other holiday accommodation units are booked by the same Booker, we will endeavour to secure such pitches or units adjacent to each other (at a minimum, at least two such pitches or units adjacent).

Updated Terms in respect of COVID-19

Postponement and cancellation

- 24. Supplemental to any other rights either of us may have in these Summary Terms of Agreement, this clause 24 and those following explain when you, or we, may cancel or agree to postpone your holiday due to government restrictions in respect of COVID-19. We prefer that you postpone but will always allow you to cancel where the law gives you the right to do so.

25. We promise to keep all our customers safe. We ask you not to book if the law prevents you visiting or staying with us, or if government guidance means that you should not visit or stay with us even if the law still allows you to. Our promise also means that there are limited circumstances in which we may need to cancel your holiday.
26. Either of us has the right to cancel your holiday, or cancel any full unused days if the law prevents you from visiting or staying with us. In such circumstances:

HOLIDAY PROTECTION COVER

For that extra piece of mind, please review the terms of our Holiday Protection Cover ("HPC") below.

If you are booking to stay in Company-provided accommodation (e.g., a glamping pod, bell tent, static caravan, lodge or cottage), our HPC protects your cancellation in the event of any member of your holiday party being unable to travel due to:

- ◆ illness or injury, including COVID-19;
- ◆ pre-existing medical condition;
- ◆ pregnancy complication;
- ◆ death, including of an immediate family member;
- ◆ jury service;
- ◆ court summons;
- ◆ armed forces or emergency services recall;
- ◆ changes to school examination dates; or
- ◆ redundancy.

Our HPC applies to the whole of your holiday party up to the Start Date (as defined above). We guarantee to return the full amount of the Deposit (as defined above) and any remaining balance paid to the Company (less the cost of the HPC premium), under these terms. Please give as much notice as possible of any cancellation. In order to obtain cover, in the event of cancellation you will need to provide the appropriate authoritative documentation to substantiate and verify your claim for HPC, e.g., a doctor's fit note in the event of sickness, accident or injury (if relevant), a death certificate, a Redundancy Notice pursuant to the Payment Act 1965, etc. Claims outside the specified reasons of cancellation listed above may not be paid by the Company.

Please note, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company's HPC premium, payable upon booking (if applicable), is non-refundable in any event.

If you are booking online, HPC will be automatically added, but you can choose to remove it during the booking process. If you are booking by telephone or email, our offer of HPC will be read to you and applied to your booking unless requested to be removed.

Important HPC Notice for Tent, Trailer Tent, Motorhome, Campervan and Touring Caravan Bookings

HPC is not applicable to tent, trailer tent, motorhome, campervan and touring caravan bookings and any HPC premium will not be added to such bookings. In such circumstances, if you are unable to visit us on your planned Start Date, we will do our utmost to honour any Amendment Request (as defined above) and move your booking to another Start Date in the same or following holiday season, subject to availability; provided any such Amendment Request is received by the Company 7 days or more before the original booked Start Date.

PARK RULES FOR HOLIDAY GUESTS & VISITORS

Please see below some brief park rules, applicable to all our parks, in place to ensure the enjoyment and safety of all our guests. As mentioned above, adherence to these rules is a condition of any holiday booking. If you encounter any problems during your stay on our parks, please contact a member of park staff and, if appropriate, please ask to be directed to the park manager so that remedial action, where possible, can be taken. Regrettably, if you do not register your problems or complaint during your stay, it may not be possible for us to investigate after your stay, and we may be unable to offer you any recompense if appropriate.

COVID-19 POLICY

We are looking forward to welcoming you to our parks!

In October 2020, we were proud to be awarded the British Home & Holiday Park Association (BH&HPA) #ProtectTourismJobs Award in recognition of our work to protect employment directly, within the local community and the industry supply chain.

In June 2020, we were awarded the “We’re Good to Go” mark. This is the official UK mark to signal that a tourism and hospitality business has worked hard to follow government and industry COVID-19 guidelines, and has a process in place to maintain cleanliness and aid social distancing.

The health & safety of our guests and staff is our number one priority. Therefore, we must all adapt to a “new normal” with social distancing and safety measures in place. We will continually review the following guidelines in line with government advice. We ask that you take the time to read them and act responsibly while on-site and in the surrounding area. Thank you very much for your support, and we apologise for any inconvenience.

If you have any COVID-19 symptoms, you must not travel to our parks.

Social Distancing

Please adhere to social distancing guidelines: where possible, keep 2 metres away from others. We advise all guests to carry hand sanitiser and wear face coverings in any indoor areas.

No Group Gatherings

Large gatherings are not allowed anywhere on our parks. Please adhere to the latest government advice about socialising.

Queuing Systems

We have a queuing system in place around all parks’ receptions and ask that you remain outside whilst queuing. Please read any signage in order to help keep yourself and others safe.

Toilet & Shower Blocks

Where applicable, our toilets and showers will be open. However, where possible (e.g., within your touring or static caravan), we encourage you to use your on-board facilities. We have more frequent cleaning procedures in place and appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE) for our staff. Washrooms will be sanitised regularly, but please note we cannot clean facilities after every person’s use. We encourage you to wipe down touch points before and after use, such as cubicle doors, locks, toilet flushes, etc. We cannot constantly monitor and control the number of people using the facilities; if it is busy, please endeavour to come back at a quieter time. Where possible, please use every other cubicle and sink to aid social distancing.

Hand Hygiene

Please wash your hands regularly for at least 20 seconds. There are hand sanitiser stations at certain locations around our parks.

Check-In / Reception

Upon arrival at our parks, please visit reception for your allocated pitch or accommodation keys. Regrettably there may be a queuing system in place at busy times. If you would prefer, please feel free to call the relevant park reception (contact details are available on our website) and avoid visiting reception in person.

Touring & Camping Pitches

We have limited the number of people staying at the park to help with social distancing protocols. Please ensure that your tent or other accommodation is in the centre of your allocated space to comply with social distancing measures.

Accommodation Hire

Notwithstanding our usual park rules set out above, check-in times for park-hired accommodation is 4pm during the COVID-19 pandemic, due to our additional cleaning measures, including decontamination fogging.

Please bring your own bed linen. Due to new COVID-19 measures, we are temporarily requesting guests bring their own duvet covers and bedsheets. Duvets, mattress protectors, pillows and pillow protectors will still be provided by us. A standard double duvet cover and bed sheet is suitable for our double rooms. Two standard single duvet covers and bed sheets are suitable for our twin rooms.

In addition, you may wish to pack your own towels, tea towels, soap and washing up liquid, as well as extra toilet roll and bin liners. At Lynmouth Holiday Retreat, you can pick up any essentials from our on-site shop.

Coronavirus Symptoms

If you develop COVID-19 symptoms while staying with us, please call us immediately and await further instructions. Do not leave your pitch/accommodation.

Visitors to Our Website

If we want to collect personally identifiable information through our website, we will be up front about this. When someone visits our website, we may use a third-party service to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things such as the number of visitors to the various parts of the website. This information is only processed in a way which does not identify anyone.

Third-Party Links

Our website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

If You Fail to Provide Personal Data

If you do not provide personal data to us and this would prevent us from performing the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you, or place us in breach of the law, we may have to cancel our contract. We will notify you if this is the case.

We may share your personal data with third parties to help us run our business or carry out our obligations to you:

We may also share your personal data with any third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

International Transfers

We do not transfer your data outside the European Economic Area.

Data Security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

How Long Will We Use Your Personal Data For?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements. You can ask us about the retention periods for different aspects of your personal data by contacting our DPM.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

Your Legal Rights

You have the right to:

- ◆ Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a 'data subject access request'). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- ◆ Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- ◆ Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- ◆ Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

- ◆ Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.
- ◆ Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- ◆ Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it may take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
